Re: Doe v. Princeton University, Docket No. 20-CV-04352-BRM-TJB

Dear Judge Martinotti:

We write on behalf of defendant Princeton University (the "University") regarding the above-captioned action.

In response to Your Honor's inquiry during today's telephonic argument, we have confirmed that the University is able to: (a) preserve existing course recordings of John Doe's lectures this semester for the pendency of this litigation, (b) take steps to record and preserve John Doe's future lectures for the remainder of this semester for the pendency of this litigation.

With respect to tomorrow's anticipated order from the Court, we respectfully request that the order be placed under temporary seal for prompt review by the parties for any confidentiality concerns regarding the determinability of the identity of students involved in the investigation.

Thank you for your courtesy and consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
